

2 February 1978

Eva,

Per our telephone conversation on 1 Feb 1978, I am returning three of the four sets of binders that have been sent to this office. The Office of Imagery Analysis (OIA) is a rather small office and one set should be suffice.

I'm sure there is a mix up some place and perhaps someone has been using an old distribution list for dissemination. We had a name change about a year ago, and were formerly known as IAS. This may have added to the confusion.

In response to [redacted] dated 8 March 1977 I requested one set of the new guide on 12 April 1977. No one else from this office should have made a similar request.

As it now stands, we have 1 set of Volume I & II and would like to receive the inserts to these volumes as they are published. You may send this material to [redacted] Room 3N109, [redacted]
